

29 January 2020

SENT TO LSU AGCENTER/LOUISIANA FOREST PRODUCTS DEVELOPMENT CENTER - FOREST SECTOR / FORESTY PRODUCTS INTEREST GROUP

Building with Mass Timber: New Orleans Workshop

KEY EVENT DETAILS

*March 11, 2020
Homewood Suites by Hilton
French Quarter
317 N. Rampart
New Orleans, LA 70112*

Purpose

The purpose of this workshop is to educate participants on how to ask for wood and understand when and where wood is the most viable and sustainable choice for construction.

This workshop will also emphasize the use of the latest wood product technologies, such as Cross Laminated Timber, and foster discussions about the economic benefits of using wood products grown and manufactured in the South.

MORE INFORMATION/REGISTRATION:

<https://mailchi.mp/5f653b4dab11/mass-timber-workshop-new-orleans>

Richard P. Vlosky, Ph.D.
*Director, Louisiana Forest Products Development Center
Crosby Land & Resources Endowed Professor of Forest Sector Business Development
Room 227, School of Renewable Natural Resources
Louisiana State University, Baton Rouge, LA 70803
Phone (office): (225) 578-4527; Fax: (225) 578-4251; Mobile Phone: (225) 223-1931
Web Site: www.LFPDC.lsu.edu*

