

CASTRO'S LEGACY AND THE FUTURE OF CUBA

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 8, 12-2PM, LUNCH PROVIDED
VIEUX CARRÉ ROOM, LSU STUDENT UNION

Rosa María Payá

&

John Suarez

Rosa María Payá is a member of the Christian Liberation Movement and daughter of its national coordinator, Oswaldo Payá, opposition leader and Sakharov Prize laureate of the European Parliament. Like her father, who died at the hands of the Cuban regime, she advocates for legal and nonviolent change so that every Cuban can enjoy all basic human rights. She is Executive Director of Cuba Decide, a citizen initiative seeking fair elections on the island.

John Suarez is a human rights activist, an advocate for ordered liberty, and currently the international secretary of the Cuban Democratic Directorate. Mr. Suarez founded the Free Cuba Foundation, an action oriented youth movement committed to human rights, supporting the Cuban internal democratic opposition, and advocating the principles of Gandhian non-violence. He hosts the blog Notes From the Cuban Exile Quarter.

SPONSORED BY THE ERIC VOEGELIN INSTITUTE AND THE VICTIMS OF COMMUNISM MEMORIAL FOUNDATION